STOP ROBBING POOR

DR. I. H. DUFFEE WRITES FACTS
CONCERNING WORKINGS OF THE POLL TAX

I am a little surprised at the line of arguments evolved by the present generation of the descendants of such heroic ancestors. Ours were men who entirely lost sight of material gain. They planted in America a new standard of life, viz: "All men are created free." Now comes this association of teachers, including our own R. D. White, pleading for the voters to retain the poll tax, for no other reason than it adds $850,000 to the common school fund of this state, and even then they admit that the added expense of free text books and other provisions will soon demand "heroic remedies."

If the poll tax is right, the remedy is easy—Increase the poll tax. This should be considered, not from the standpoint of expediency, but from the standpoint of justice. If "all men are created free and possess the inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," then they have a right to their person. Under the poll tax system every man born must pay a tax on his existence. The problem of whether he owns a dollar or if he has a large family which he is straining every energy to feed, house and clothe ever so poorly, or if he has a sick wife or children crying for bread, the first two dollars he earns each year must go to pay for his right to live. The poll tax is a relic of ancient barbarism, when the wealthy feudal lords taxed their poor dependents to pay for their luxuries, when men existed for government, not government for men.

Nearly every state in this Union has outgrown this injustice and abolished it. Is the great state of California, with its mighty resources, unable to educate its children without taxing flesh and blood? We boast of our workmen's compensation act, child labor, industrial welfare commission, etc. We established the common school and charitable institutions to help the poor and unfortunate, and then tax his body to pay for it.

These institutions are not needed by the rich. They can educate and care for their own. But the state has wisely said the resources of the commonwealth must also contribute to nurture the unfortunate class. One says the poll tax is the only revenue received from the foreigners and laboring men. In the first place they should not pay a tax on their bodies at all, and then to make it the same as that paid by men of means. In the second place they do pay taxes on everything they purchase to eat and wear. The rent they pay must include the taxes on the property. Is any so shortsighted as to overlook the fact that merchants and landlords add their taxes to their goods? Think of the audacious nerve of attempting to exclude non-taxpayers—so-called—from voting on "bond issues." "Shades of our ancestors," and this is America! This would disfranchise over 75 per cent of the women. It is a base attempt to put the government in the hands of capital.

The public schools and free text books are for the children of the common people, and the expense should be borne by the wealth of the state. Stop "grinding the face of the poor." The toiler who gets $1.75 a day and pays 50c for butter and 55c for eggs, and who owns not a foot of soil, should not have his quivering, sweaty body taxed, and be obliged to pay equal to Harrison Gray Otis.

Like Shylock and his pound of flesh, these teach that all men are created free and equal. You say, if this tax is abolished it will shorten the school year by two weeks, and that already one month of wages due you is unpaid. This is all wrong and should be remedied at once, but not by adding the burden to poverty-stricken toilers, and that in a state where even the barren sun-kissed land is valued by the thousands per acre. Please give a reason for taxing men that does not apply equally to women also in this state. Need and greed will say vote "no," but justice and freedom will say emphatically vote "yes" on No. 10.

VOTE FOR MUHLEMAN AND BE SAFE

This morning's Los Angeles Times under the heading of "A Good Ticket," says "Frank A. McDonald, whose name appears on the Republican ticket for assemblyman from the 61st district, is not desirable, nor creditable to party."

Every voter in this district has an opportunity to cast a ballot for Frank L. Muhleman of Glendale, who is a candidate for assemblyman, and by so doing run no risk in electing an undesirable man.

GOVERNOR GIVEN GREAT OVATION IN GLENDALE

CALIFORNIA'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE ADDRESSES LARGEST AUDIENCE
EVER ASSEMBLED IN GLENDALE—SPEAKS OF THE RECORD OF THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION AND CONFIDENCE
HELD IN THE PEOPLE TO CONTINUE THE SAME

Gov. Johnson as He Appeared in Glendale Last Evening

Glendale last night was the scene of the largest and most enthusiastic political gathering or meeting of any kind ever held within her borders, when the citizenship assembled to greet the state's chief executive, Governor Hiram Johnson. This meeting was a fitting climax to the governor's tour through the San Fernando valley, where he was greeted with enthusiasm.

Members of the Johnson-Eshleman Non-Partisan club motored to Lankershim in the afternoon, where the governor spoke to a large gathering, and escorted this distinguished man to Glendale.

In the evening the Glendale municipal band were driven through the streets of Glendale, Tropic and Casa Verdugo reminding the people that this community was honored by a visit from the governor of the state, but this was unnecessary, as already the grounds of the high school were swarming with men and women waiting to be admitted as soon as the doors were opened. When finally the building was thrown open, the auditorium, the annex, the platform and halls were quickly filled and many more were left on the outside unable to obtain seats or standing room in the building.

The capacity of the auditorium and annex is 700, and it is estimated that a thousand people were unable to gain entrance, some of whom were turned away disappointed, while most of the crowd remained until the close of the meeting, when the governor addressed them from the steps of the building.

The remarkable feature of the evening was the oneness of the crowd. Doubtless there were those in the audience who are not in sympathy with Governor Johnson, but they did not make themselves felt. The enthusiasm was general and the audience was unanimous in appreciation of the points made by the speaker and were quick to express that appreciation in applause.

The program opened with a solo by Mr. William Herman West, who sang in his own masterful manner, and was heartily applauded. Mrs. Mattison B. Jones was his accompanist. Attorney W. E. Evans, president of the Johnson-Eshleman Non-Partisan club, presided and introduced the governor in a brief speech in which he expressed the thought that the enthusiasm and numbers of the Glendale audience were only an index of the way the people of California approve of the present state administration and wish it continued. Mr. Evans stated that Governor Johnson four years ago made more promises than any candidate for any office in the United States ever made before, and that he has redeemed every one of those promises.

While the governor was making his speech, the crowds on the outside of the building were listening to addresses from Lieutenant-Governor Wallace, Congressman Charles W. Bell, Senator William J. Carr and Harry A. Wishard, candidate for the assembly, who were introduced by Attorney Albert D. Pearce, secretary of the Johnson-Eshleman Non-Partisan League. These men all made speeches and after they had finished the crowd continued to wait for another half hour while the governor continued to hold the interest of the audience inside. At the conclusion of his address he appeared in the doorway and spoke for ten minutes to the people outside, who displayed the same close attention and the same responsive spirit as his former audience. Those who heard Governor Johnson last night for the first time were impressed with his straightforward manner of presenting his cause, his ability as an orator and his tireless energy.

"When we took charge of the state government in January, 1911," Governor Johnson told his audience, "we found the graft and corruption that always follows in the wake of a system such as had been in vogue in this state for so long a time. Today there is not a crooked newspaper or crooked politician that dares say there is corruption or graft in any department of the state government."

"We have stopped the pay check graft. We have provided for the safety of workmen in buildings in the course of construction. We have at last a full train crew bill. We have regulated employment agencies and have prevented the wrongs and frauds that have been practiced in the past. We have required first aid chests for use of employees. We have amended the child labor laws until practically there is no child labor in this state. We have required those engaged in seasonal labor to receive their funds without deduction for gambling or liquor debts. We have made an eight-hour day for women who toil."

"We have given to the state the most perfect workmen's compensation law that is in existence. This law now receives its tribute alike from employer and employee. When this act was pending before the legislature dreadful were the prophecies made by business interests in the state, and I am delighted tonight to say to you—and no greater eulogy (Continued on Page 2)

AMENDMENTS 19 AND 21 ARE DANGEROUS

Vote "no" on amendments 19 and 21, which are not city and county consolidation amendments, but authorize cities and adjacent taxable areas to secede and withdraw support from counties.

When in doubt, vote "no." Amendments 19 and 21 are not only doubtful, but dangerous. They make it possible for certain big cities to dominate the legislature.

County division, facilitated by amendments 19 and 21, means duplication of offices, more spoils for politicians, multiplication of tax-eaters and fights for county seats.

Under amendments 19 and 21 cities or unincorporated territory annexed, may be committed to consolidation, but the annexing city can delay forming a charter for two years, leaving uncertainty as to the form of the new government.

Annexation amendments 19 and 21 change the fundamental law of the state, so that the city annexed may be made subject to bonded indebtedness, upon a simple majority vote, instead of by two-thirds now required. This is extremely dangerous to the taxpayer, and the existing safeguards should be maintained.

Under pretext of economy, amendments 19 and 21 were framed by certain politicians in the big cities in order to shoulder some of their debts on the country districts. Vote "no" on both.

Both annexation amendments 19 and 21 permit the coercion of county districts, for unincorporated territory has no separate vote on whether or not it shall be included in a consolidated city and county. This means additional taxation without representation.

Vote against amendments 19 and 21 and retain reasonable representation for the agricultural, mining, fruit growing and stock raising areas in the state.

Amendments 19 and 21 were framed without consideration for any but the three largest cities of the State. They are unfair, unjust and un-American, and should be repudiated by all who wish the laws of the state to be based on justice and equity and not to serve special and private interests.

Amendments 19 and 21 involve issues rejected by the legislature and repudiated by the voters at the election of 1912 by 106,000 majority. Do not let them slip by this time.

CITIZENS OF GLENDALE INVITED TO HEAR DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR

To the Citizens of Glendale:
Senator John B. Curtin, the Democratic nominee for governor of California, will address the citizens of Glendale and community at Butler's hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

Senator Curtin is recognized as one of the ablest lawyers and constructive legislators in the state, his services in the senate of California having covered a period of sixteen years. Though a member of the minority party in the legislature during the sixteen years, he has rendered invaluable service to the people in his many attempts to get upon the statute books measures of great common interest.

You are cordially invited to hear Senator Curtin, and then requested to pass an unbiased judgment upon his qualifications for chief executive of this state. Last night you heard charges made against him by a candidate for the same office. Hear his defense tonight.

NEW RULING FOR LOCAL CARS

The Glendale and Montrose railway has received a notice from the railroad commission that they are not to allow passengers to enter or alight from cars at the front end. Several accidents due to passengers alighting from the front end of interurban cars in Los Angeles are responsible for this ruling.

Heretofore passengers have been allowed to enter and alight from both ends of the local cars and the management wishes the indulgence of the public in this innovation, for which the company is not responsible and which is made solely in the interests of safety. The trifling inconvenience should not be considered when it is remembered that accidents may be avoided by this ruling.

COLUMNS OPEN TO ALL PARTIES

The columns of the Evening News are open to all candidates and political parties. While the editor reserves the right to his personal opinions as to candidates and parties, he accords every other citizen the same right, and thinks it right that all candidates and political parties be represented upon an equal basis through the columns of the paper. To be frank, we will say it is principles of candidates we count on more than on party name. There are worthy men in all parties, and there are unworthy men in all parties.

ROUSING RALLY

The Glendale police force was entertained to a rousing rally early Wednesday evening while a "stew" was cooling off. The combined efforts of the desk sergeant and officers failed to break up his "speech" and only sleep overcame his efforts.

MEXICAN FATALLY INJURED

Tom Carlos, a Mexican laborer, dying from ugly wounds on the head, was picked up by the Glendale police early Wednesday evening just outside Glendale city limits on Sycamore avenue. It is thought that Carlos was run down by an automobile while in an intoxicated condition.

The man's home was less than a block away on Patterson avenue. Dr. R. E. Chase and the Pulliam ambulance were notified and the man was taken to the police headquarters, where he was temporarily cared for until removal to the county hospital. Carlos' head was terribly lacerated and one ear was entirely hacked off. The attending surgeon did not believe that the victim could survive more than forty-eight hours.

AGAIN HONORED

The gracious hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robertson, residing at 925 Stocker street, was extended to friends last evening when they entertained in their pretty home complimentary to Miss Katherine Wells and her fiancé, Dr. James L. Flint.

Large feathery lavender and yellow chrysanthemums enlivened the rooms where the bidden guests enjoyed cards. A unique arrangement was carried out in the dining-room, where the supper was served. Here the hostess had arranged two tables, Miss Katherine Wells presiding at one, in the center of which stood a miniature groom, and Dr. Flint took the head at the second table, in the center of which stood a bride.

Covers for the guests were marked with hand-adorned place cards bearing brides. When scores were read it was learned that the honored guests stood first and both were rewarded with beautiful prizes.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL FOR ALL

The ghosts will hold revel tomorrow night in large numbers at the Sunday school room at the Presbyterian church, when members of the Christian Endeavor society will give a Halloween social and old fashioned basket lunch. All are asked to come in a costume composed of a sheet, a pillow case and a mask, and needless to say, fun will reign supreme. The ladies are to take boxes of lunch for two, which will be sold at auction to the highest bidder.

Important features which will add to the merriment will be a fortune teller, a chamber of horrors, the Goop sisters and a maid of mystery. Everyone is cordially invited to come and join in the fun and the games appropriate to All Saints' night.

RETURN FROM EASTERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. MacMullin have returned from a two months' sojourn in the East, during which time they visited relatives in Ontario and took in several of the important large cities in the eastern portions of the United States and Canada.

FIRE CHIEF HERALD'S GOOD WORK

The writer took a few minutes to view the speedy and excellent work being done by the Glendale fireboys in one of their practice stunts at Broadway and Orange streets on Wednesday evening. Their handling of ladders and hose shows marked improvement over their initial practices. It might be stated that numerous compliments were spoken for the boys and the water pressure also,

WISDOM FOR DOMESTIC ECONOMISTS

Clubwomen of the United States who are affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs are receiving from the home economics department of that organization a summons to wise action as consumers during coming months. With a celerity and directness wholly admirable, this finely organized federation has been brought face to face with its moral duties at a time of unusual stress. How to make up the family budget in a just way, how to discriminate in economics so as not to change present producers into temporary or permanent dependents, and how to dispense any surplus income as between indigent neighbors and fellow countrywomen on the one hand and homeless, penniless refugees of other nations on the other hand—these are some of the many problems to be faced by women of the clubs. Very properly an effort is being made to get co-operative action, so that the problem of living within the family income and at the same time continuing to serve humanity may be solved for individuals whose personal resources may seem unequal to the task.

In the official statement of the economics department, which has gone out broadcast, we notice that no encouragement is given to plans which include "agitation, boycotting, suspicion of producer, jobber and retailer." They are described as "unintelligent methods" of meeting a situation calling for virtues characteristic of woman. Nor is resort to new legislation restraining makers of foods, textiles and other staple necessities trusted as being efficacious. Reliance seems to be placed on personal choices, based on ideals of simplicity, frugality, generosity, and wide-ranging human sympathy. Woman, as a consumer, is to be asked to spend with more forethought, conscience and indifference to external possessions; and at the same time not to go to the extreme of denial, lest grave injustice be done to producers and to those gifted persons whose living is derived from their artistic accomplishments and whose normal indifference to prudential and pecuniary aspects of existence makes them doubly vulnerable when eras of voluntary or compulsory retrenchment come to mankind.

To the clubwomen of the country the problem of domestic economy takes on a dual form, personal and communal. They must make their own adjustments, and they must continue to shape action where communities in which they reside are brought face to face with applicants for relief. They can see to it that answers to such appeals conform to fine sentiments and also to wise methods. The will to succeed may well find expression in ways dictated by common sense.—Christian Science Monitor.

EXPLAINING A PHENOMENON

Uncle Zack is an old colored man who lives in a certain little town in North Carolina, where he is regarded as quite an oracle by the other members of his race.

Once an earthquake shook the town and as soon as the natives got over their scare enough to discuss the why and wherefore of the shock, they cornered Uncle Zack and demanded an explanation.

"Well, I'll tell you. Hit's like dis," he explained. "About once in so often de atmosphere happens ter come in v'ient contact wid de hemisphere and de result is we has a earthquake."—Washington Star.

GOVERNOR GIVEN OVATION

could be passed upon this enactment—that the very interests who opposed it, those interests that now seek the control of the state government and who predicted ruin and disaster, have incorporated an approval of the act in their platform and even go so far as to claim credit for its enactment.

"It is pathetic to hear the Republican candidate for governor asserting in speeches to the people of this state that prior to 1910 the railroad commission had been given its power and that it had been enabled to do its subsequent work because of what the Republican party did prior to 1910. It is pathetic because the statement displays a poverty of knowledge or lack of understanding we would not wish to ascribe to a candidate for the highest office in this state.

"Prior to 1910 there really was no railroad commission. There was the railroad, and the railroad was the commission, as well as the government of the state." Today this commission of ours is recognized as the ablest in all the nation. No longer can a public service corporation indulge in extortion. No longer can a transportation company build its wealth out of the impoverishment of our business men.

"Do you understand that there is only one state in this Union that has had the temerity to regulate the Bell telephone monopoly, and that that state is your state—the state of California?"

"Do you know that seven states in this Union already have copied the public utilities act of your state?"

"Do you know that every state in the Union is looking out here for guidance, to your state, the state of California?"

"It is glorious to know that our state is looked to as the leader in such a great work.

"Our friends of the opposition are unconscious humorists, seeking to amuse the public of California," was his reference to what he termed the "back somersaulting" activities of the Republicans in endeavoring, at the last minute, to take credit on themselves for Progressive legislation. Declining to deal in personalities, the governor dealt with the official records of the opposition.

The governor mentioned one thing of which many people are woefully ignorant and that is that we as individuals pay no state taxes. This fund comes from the corporations.

When Governor Johnson was inaugurated he says there was a pretty little custom in vogue in the legislature of a vacation commission rendering bills for work supposed to be done while the legislature was not in session. This is absolutely unconstitutional and a bill for $6000 and one for $7000 during the ensuing vacation rendered by Senator John Curtin were promptly turned down. The speaker asked that when Senator Curtin charges the present administration with extravagance, he, the governor, be credited with $13,000 which John Curtin didn't get.

Near the close of his address he prophesied or rather promised that partisanship will be taken out of state offices the coming year, as it has out of municipal and county governments. Candidates for state offices should stand upon their own merits. The governor will close the campaign with a mammoth rally Saturday night in Los Angeles in Trinity auditorium on Grand avenue near Ninth street.

SOLD AS ANCIENT ART?

"It took eight years of work."
"That's a long time to devote to one picture."
"Yes, indeed—six days to paint it and the rest of the time to sell it."—Philadelphia Record.

Governor Johnson had a larger crowd at his overflow meeting on Wednesday evening at the school auditorium than has any other candidate had at his regular meetings during this campaign.

When it comes to improvements, Glendale stays right on the map in Southern California. The building permits for this month will equal $50,000.

'ROUND ABOUT US

A clerk in the office of the board of supervisors made a costly error when he omitted from the sample ballot a candidate's name. The mistake was not discovered until 200,000 of the sample ballots had been run off. These had to be reprinted at a cost of $1800 to the county.

A ten-acre Whittier orange grove changed hands recently at the price of $40,000. The property is one of the best in Whittier and includes a beautiful twelve-room ranch house. The grove consists of six-year-old Valencia. Pasadena property was taken in exchange for part of the sale price.

Ernest Maag, a 13-year-old Monrovia boy, fell from a limb of a tree and plunged down a rocky slide near the summit of Mt. Monrovia, sustaining a fractured skull and badly bruised head and arms. Physicians are hopeful of his recovery.

Lora Crockett, an eleven-year-old Alhambra girl, who was roller skating on Main street, collided with an auto coming out of a garage. She was badly bruised about the head and shoulders.

Glendora voted down the pool and billiard hall proposition by a vote of 304 to 102.

Forest Supervisor Charlton, in charge of the Angeles forest reserve, confronted with the announcement that the department is short of funds, has laid off a number of forest guards who ordinarily would be retained on the ranges until the beginning of the winter rains.

Pasadena has an unique way of protecting her merchants. Transient firms that go to that city to open establishments must give a bond to show that they intend to remain for one year, otherwise they will be compelled to pay five per cent of their sales.

While the family of Jesse Knight were away from home, burglars broke into their beautiful La Canada ranch home and after enjoying a wine supper, departed with several hundred dollars' worth of silver, leaving all the lights in the house burning.

WELL BALANCED

"I don't quite see the point of that remark of yours," said Mr. Skinner, the grocer, as he tied up the package of sugar.

"What remark was that?" asked the customer.

"You just remarked that some men had an offhand way of doing things and you wished I was one."

"Yes; I wished to remind you that your hand was on the sugar when you weighed it."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

If there are children please give age and sex of same. Notify Mrs. E. D. Yard of 127 North Maryland street, as Mrs. Yard is the chairman of the emergency committee of the Glendale Federation of the Parent-Teacher association.

The membership of the Tuesday Afternoon club continues in its steady growth. At a meeting of the club on Tuesday the following names were proposed for membership: Mrs. Paul Ward, 200 East Second street; Miss Laura Smith, 218 Glendale avenue; Mrs. Josephine R. Brant, West Sixth street; Mrs. J. W. Stauffer, 421 Orange street. Action will be taken on names at the meeting of the board of directors following the expiration of the customary two weeks' notice.

SNEAK THIEF GETS $25 LOOT

The Andrews home at 811 Brand boulevard was entered last evening while the family was spending the evening with neighbors in an adjoining bungalow. A twenty-dollar chain and pendant, ring, and three dollars in change were taken. The police are at work on a clue which will likely lead to the apprehension of the thief.

OBITUARY

Mr. John Moyse, whose funeral occurred this afternoon, has made Glendale his home for the last twelve years. He was born in Lannceston, Cornwall, England, July 26, 1832. When twenty-one years old he left England for Quebec, thence to Wisconsin to join acquaintances. He gave his whole-hearted allegiance to the land he had selected for his home and never returned to his native country.

During the time of the gold excitement he with other friends formed a company to make the long overland journey by ox team to Pike's Peak. Influenced by unfavorable reports concerning this section, the company continued to California, reaching their destination after five months of hardship. For four years he prospected and mined in the mountains of Nevada county. In January, 1863, he started to return to Wisconsin, taking passage from San Francisco for New York by way of Panama.

He was married Feb. 22, 1863, to Betsy A. Franch and observed the fiftieth anniversary of the day in his Glendale home Feb. 22, 1913. His daughter, Mrs. James Parsons of Elkhorn, Wisconsin, and his two sons, George U. of Glendale and J. Ira of Los Angeles, with their families and many friends, joined with them in this happy celebration.

Following his early residence in California he always looked forward to making the state his permanent home, and in April, 1891, having sold his Wisconsin interests, he came to Rivera, where he lived until the spring of 1903, when it became necessary for him to give up active work. He moved to Glendale, where he and his son George built their homes on Fifth and Kenwood streets.

Although he took no leading part in public affairs, he was a constant reader and keen observer. His ideal was true manhood and stability and purity of character and purpose. As a citizen he valued his franchise highly and gave his influence to further the principles he exemplified in his own life.

His religious life was undemonstrative, but true. He simply "lived his religion." At the last he spoke of death as "going home." Faithful in all his duties, he was always ready to help where help was needed, and to share whatever he had.

Never uncharitable in thought, or unkind in criticism, his life was ruled by the supreme thought of service to his family, his friends—all done so quietly and unobtrusively that one hardly realized till he was gone what a large place he filled in the affection of all—his life touched other lives only for good, and thus he passed to his reward.

OBITUARY

In the death of Charles D. Rennacker at his home at 1423 West Seventh street on Monday, October 26, shortly before 5 o'clock, there passed from this life a beautiful and dearly loved character. Mr. Rennacker was born in Germany Nov. 4, 1837, and so was nearly 77 years of age. He came to this country when a small boy with his parents, who located in Chicago, and he was one of the earliest settlers of that now thriving city, having been a witness to the marvelous changes that took place in the Illinois city in the more than half a century that he lived there.

It was from that place that he enlisted when the call came to take up arms in defense of the Union, and he served faithfully for three years and three months.

Perhaps Mr. Rennacker's happiest years were the last six years of his life. He was naturally a landscape gardener and had the faculty of making things about him grow. Surrounded by his beautiful gardens, in which he took such delight, he passed many happy days and years, and brought joy to himself as well as those about him. He was kindly and gentle by nature, as are those who love and know nature.

On August 28 Mr. and Mrs. Rennacker had the supreme happiness of celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. On that day their joy was made complete by the presence of their four sons, who came from far away places to be with them on that occasion, C. J. Rennacker of Minnesota, E. W. Rennacker of Oakland, W. R. Rennacker of Chicago and G. J. Rennacker of Oakland.

The day following Mr. Rennacker was stricken with paralysis, the second and third stroke followed, the last one being fatal.

Funeral services are this afternoon at the Pulliam undertaking chapel, the members of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R. in charge. Interment will be in Forest Lawn cemetery.

THE BEST SPEECH

Mr. Alonzo T. Jones will speak on the most important issues of the pending amendments at the high school auditorium on Thursday evening, October 29th. Mr. Jones is a speaker of national reputation. He has frequently spoken before committees of the senate and house in congress. Do not miss it. Of interest to everybody. Eight o'clock. Admittance and exit free.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville L. Clark of Bakersfield will arrive in Glendale today and be domiciled at the home of Mr. Clark's brother, Mr. Oliver O. Clark of 100 South Louise street. In a few days Mr. Clark will leave for Arizona on an extended business trip, leaving Mrs. Clark here.

NORTH GLENDAL

Mr. J. McDaniels of Los Angeles has bought the property formerly owned by Mr. Chas. Huey on Fairview avenue for a home and is having it remodeled and put in condition to move his family into, which Mr. McDaniels expects to do in the near future.

Mrs. J. E. Bassett of Valley View road is entertaining as her house guest her sister, Miss Emerton of Pasadena, who is convalescing from a recent operation and who will remain until the first of the year.

Mrs. Cedric Hall of Avenue Sixty-six, Los Angeles, a well-known former resident of North Glendale, will give a Halloween party at her home Saturday evening, to which Mr. and Mrs. George P. Rueter and Mr. and Mrs. Elliott C. Muller of Fairview avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Payne of 702 North Louise street are guests, with several others from Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Fairchild of 1321 Arden avenue, with their friend, Mr. M. R. Thompson of New York, formed a merry party who had dinner at Levy's last Tuesday evening, the occasion being in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Fairchild. Later the party had the pleasure of the Orpheum and reported a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. G. C. Eddings of 1025 Fairview avenue returned home Wednesday after an absence of three months spent in Portland, Oregon, and in Washington visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McKeever and Mrs. McKeever's mother, Mrs. Glenn of 421 North Brand boulevard enjoyed a motor trip to Ocean Park and Venice the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McDonald of North Maryland avenue, who left recently on an extensive business and pleasure trip by motor, planning to tour the state of Arizona, are at the present time just getting beyond the Barstow country, where they encountered exceedingly bad roads, yet notwithstanding are enjoying the trip thus far. The Grand Canyon and other points of interest will be visited by these well-known people before they return.

Mrs. R. D. Jones and sister, Miss Nan Brown of 908 Dryden street have opened a basket grocery on North Central avenue near the wash and will also have a light lunch department for the convenience of the North Central avenue school children.

Miss Marjory Duncan of 1600 Ruth street has secured the contract to sing at the Hotel Alexandria for the entertainment of the guests for several weeks at least. Her many friends are extending to the young lady their congratulations and best wishes for a brilliant future.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The senior class of the high school is planning a big Halloween party for Friday evening. The scene of festivities will be in the new mechanical arts building, which will serve as an ideal place for an affair of this kind. Among the many good things planned by the entertainment committee is a regular Halloween "feed" with pumpkin pie, apples, nuts and sweet cider. All sorts of Halloween stunts and games will be participated in.

Coach Wight has started a basketball squad working in lieu of the coming game with Burbank.

Many interesting discussions on the amendments have occupied the attention of Prof. Harry Howe's American history classes the past week.

In sympathy for Principal Moyse, who buries his father today, the high school is closed. Floral pieces from the faculty and pupils of the high school have been sent to the bereaved family.

RETURN FROM ST. PAUL

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hartmann, who have spent the past five and a half months in St. Paul and vicinity, returned to Glendale Tuesday evening and are at present domiciled at the Woods hotel until their home is vacated.

Mr. Hartmann combined business and pleasure while in St. Paul, the former home of the family and where he still has property interests.

Mr. Hartmann reports a very pleasant summer in that part of the country and claims that the war has not affected business there in the least. There is more building being done in St. Paul and business is better than it has been for years.

Minnesota and surrounding states, known as the bread and butter states, are less affected by shipping and manufacturing troubles than cities in the east or west.

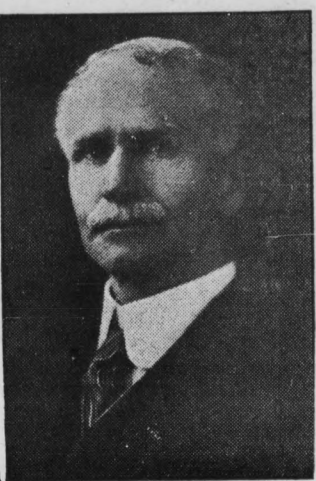

DON'T DISTURB PROPERTY

Chief of Police G. H. Herald issues warning to all Halloween revelers that property must be left alone. Plenty of extra officers will be stationed around town and any destruction of property or unnecessary disturbance will be prosecuted.

Chief Herald does not want to interfere with any good times, but the rights of others must be observed.

The friends of Mrs. F. A. Field will be glad to know that all danger of pneumonia has past.

RAILROADS FOR EUREKA

Mr. W. P. MacMullin, who with his wife recently returned from a two months' trip in the East, mailed us a copy of the Humboldt Standard published at Eureka, Cal., of Oct. 24. Eureka on that day lost her time honored distinction as being the largest city in the world without a railroad, for the first through train from San Francisco arrived in that city Saturday morning.

The Standard says:

"But this new page in Humboldt's history was not turned without one last but vain struggle by the forbidding mountains which for years made Humboldt famous as a railroadless city. It was 5 o'clock last night before those mountains recovered from their stupor sufficiently to realize that they were about to be conquered and then, with a mighty effort, they belched forth an avalanche of rock and earth at Sonoma creek, covering the track, and an hour later the excursion trains were stopped with the slide between them and their destination. The news came to Eureka shortly after the slide came to the railroad, but the crowd of fully 7000 people on the streets remained good natured and midnight saw still 2000 merry-makers keeping their vigil for the coming of the first train. As the hours went by many returned to their homes only to arise when 2 o'clock arrived and it was a sleepy, yet satisfied and sincerely enthusiastic gathering of 2500 persons who stood on the Northwestern Pacific platform when the first train arrived."

Mr. MacMullin's name appears among the list of passengers who entered Eureka on the first train.

NEW SHOE STORE =FOR GLENDALE=

Olmstead's Shoe Store of 907 S. Broadway, Los Angeles, will move and be open for business
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31

--AT--

318 BRAND BOULEVARD NEXT DOOR TO POST OFFICE

THIS is not a branch store but we move the whole stock to Glendale. We made a specialty of Ladies' and Childrens' Shoes in Los Angeles and will add a good, up-to-date line of Men's Shoes. We will try to give our customers as good, and a little better if possible, than they can buy elsewhere for the same money. On account of our very reasonable rent, we shall be able to sell the same goods for less money than we could in Los Angeles. All of our shoes are guaranteed to give you your money's worth in hard wear. We will try to make it to your advantage to give us a portion of your patronage.

VOTE FOR A DRY CALIFORNIA

THE Saloon and it's henchmen are a disgrace to any community. The law should not tolerate the sale of that which makes those who partake of it stupid and dangerous characters in a community.

Vote for a Sober State

CALIFORNIA SEEKS MORE ELBOW ROOM

Public as well as private business has grown immensely in the United States during recent years, and with it has grown an incessant demand for increased administrative equipment. In town, city, county, state and nation the old quarters have had to be enlarged or provision made for new and additional quarters. Numerous structures have been erected in Washington within the last few years to facilitate the transaction of public business, and one of the regular and heavy annual drafts on the national treasury is now for new and larger custom houses, appraisers' storehouses and postoffices throughout the country. Many of the states and a much larger number of the cities have been compelled of late years to rent buildings to relieve overcrowded offices in publicly owned buildings.

California is numbered among the states that have been driven into rented quarters. The capitol at Sacramento does not come anywhere near meeting the office needs of the state. State officials in Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles are housed in expensive quarters. In the latter city the appellate court, the railroad commission, the labor commission, the immigration commission and other state departments are widely separated. To a greater or less degree this is true likewise of San Francisco and Sacramento.

The question of voting $1,250,000 of state building bonds for Los Angeles, $1,000,000 of state building bonds for San Francisco and $3,000,000 of state building bonds for Sacramento is to come before the voters of California at the election of next month. An effort is now being made to show the voters how the state can make a large saving, in addition to affording the public better accommodations, by erecting and occupying buildings of its own.

The states throughout all the past very generally have aimed to consolidate their business at the state capitals. In California the state government is adjusting itself to the people by establishing branch offices in the populous cities. This is manifestly such a progressive move that it can hardly be long before other states will follow California's example.—Christian Science Monitor.

CITIES DON'T ADVERTISE

Judge Rennie of the Venice Vanguard, who recently returned from an eastern trip, has the following comment to make on the way Southern California cities are advertised in the East:

"One of the best known passenger agents at Boston, whom we happened to know, said in part: 'I am surprised that you people residing in close proximity to Los Angeles do not furnish the eastern railroad offices with reliable and attractive literature concerning your respective cities, towns and communities. We have an almost endless inquiry for just that class of literature. I'm afraid that you are not improving your opportunities to gain publicity (which means desirable citizens eventually), as well as the people of Central and Northern California do. It would be a pleasure to distribute your literature entirely free of cost. There is a constantly growing inquiry, but we are unable to satisfy the applicants for the simple reason that we haven't a thing to offer concerning your locality. The travel to California in 1915 in volume will surpass that of any year in railroad history, and the people of Venice and Santa Monica ought right now be exerting an effort to get a good share of that travel. You furnish the literature and the railroad offices will do their part in placing it where good will result.'"

GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE

A new factor is going to cut considerable ice in the coming election. The good government league, of which Senator Owen (Democrat) of Oklahoma is president and Senator Clapp (Republican) of Minnesota is vice-president, is doing effective work in this campaign. It is trying to keep corporation tools and "machine politicians" like Boss Murphy of Tammany Hall out of the house and senate. This league is vigorously fighting Roger Sullivan of Illinois for the senatorship and is supporting Robins, the Progressive nominee. In Pennsylvania the Progressive-Republicans and Progressive-Democrats have united on A. Mitchell Palmer, who holds the Democratic nomination for United States senator, as an exceptionally able statesman, and a warm personal friend and supporter of President Wilson. So the Democrats of Illinois are throwing their reactionary nominee down who secured the nomination by machine methods and corporation support, so the Progressive benefits here, and in Pennsylvania the Progressives are uniting with the Democrats to beat Boies Penrose, the Standard Oil tool and machine candidate.

PROUD OF RECORD

The San Bernardino police recently took in charge a tramp who boasted that he had not taken a bath for twenty-five years. They managed to break his record for him.

Tropico celebrates $100,000 worth of improvements. That's a mighty good record for a town of 3000 people when you stop to think that it means nearly thirty-five dollars per person.

EUROPE IN CLUTCHES OF WAR

Citizens of the United States should feel extremely proud that their lot is cast among a people who are not warlike. A people who are slow to go to war, but a people who are ever ready to protect their home institutions. The United States government is a people's government. The president and governors are merely servants of the people in the United States. While we enjoy peace, foreign countries are engaged in a bitter struggle, and the rank and file of the citizens of the conflicting countries are helpless. A review of the past forty-eight hours' engagements are as follows:

PARIS, Oct. 28, 11:18 p. m.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight says:

"In Belgium two night attacks attempted by the enemy in the region of Dixmude have been repulsed. The German effort on the front between Nieuport and Dixmude appeared to be moderating. Our offensive continues to the north of Ypres.

"Between La Bassée and Lens there has been slight progress on our part.

"On the remainder of the front there is nothing to report."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Official dispatches made public here tonight by the French embassy reported successes for the allies all along the line.

"Reports state that everywhere the enemy has received a serious check," said the cablegram.

"Other attacks on different parts of our front, particularly at the north and the south of the Somme and toward Berry-au-Bac, were less important.

"Reports state that everywhere the enemy has received a serious check. In the course of the day yesterday, as previously, the allied troops took a number of prisoners. In the region of the north an unknown number of mitrailleuses and cannon were taken by our troops.

"In Poland the progress of the Russians continues. A very vigorous combat took place in the region of Jozowrawa.

"In the direction of Now Alexandria Zevelen the enemy beat a retreat, leaving to the Russians fifty officers, 3000 men and a number of mitrailleuses and cannon.

"To the south of Zoletz the Russian troops crossed the Vistula, taking eight officers and 800 men.

"In the Carpathians the Austrians were thrown back on the railway near Staromier-to-Turka. In East Prussia violent German attacks were repulsed."

AMSTERDAM (via London), Oct. 28, 8:20 p. m.—General headquarters at Berlin issued the following official communication this morning:

"The fighting near Nieuport and Dixmude is continuing. The Belgians have received considerable reinforcements, but our attacks are being pushed. Sixteen British warships joined in the attack on our right wing, but their bombardment was without success.

"Near Ypres the situation as announced yesterday remains unchanged. West of Lille our attacks are being continued with success.

"Some of the French trenches in the Argonne wood have been carried and the defenders captured.

"To sum up, there has been no material change on our western front."

The German and Austrian troops in Poland, according to an official announcement issued in Berlin today, have been forced to withdraw before fresh Russian forces advancing from Ivangorod, Warsaw and Novogorodievsk, after having repulsed all former Russian attacks.

The statement continues: "At first the Russians did not follow and the withdrawal of our troops took place without difficulty. The reserve troops will change their formation according to the situation."

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Belgian minister in London this evening received the following messages from his government:

"HAVRE, Oct. 28.—The situation of our troops on the Yser has improved. The fire of the enemy's artillery has slackened, being subdued by the guns of the fleet.

"The operations of the allies at Ypres are very satisfactory."

ATTENDS EUCHARIST LEAGUE

Rev. Father James S. O'Neill was present yesterday at the meeting of the seventh annual conference of the Priests' Eucharistic League held at Long Beach, which was attended by Bishop Conaty and seventy-five priests. The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing Sunday school, regular attendance at church and other church matters.

Following the celebration of solemn high mass, the members of the league listened to an inspiring sermon by Rev. P. F. McLoughlin of San Diego.

The regular session of the day began at noon following a luncheon given the visitors by their host, Rev. Father Reardon of St. Anthony's church of that city. Presided over by Bishop Conaty, the visitors listened to a discussion of "The Sunday School—Its Organization, Grading and Methods of Teaching," the paper being read by Rev. Phillip Williams, O. S. B. of All Souls church, Alhambra.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown of Topeka, Kans., are visiting Mr. Brown's sister, Mrs. Joseph Adams, residing on Central avenue, Tropico. Mr. Brown is well pleased with Glendale and Tropico and is contemplating residing in this valley permanently.

LEAGUE MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS

The League of California Municipalities representing practically every city of the state and headed by Percy V. Long of San Francisco, known as the best municipal lawyer in the state, submit the following recommendations on some of the proposed amendments relating to municipalities. City Manager T. W. Watson furnishes us with this report:

No. 7 on ballot—Assembly constitutional amendment; would authorize home rule in taxation—Vote "yes."

No. 15 on ballot—Initiative amendment to section 16½, article 11; would destroy the market for municipal bonds—Vote "no."

No. 16 on ballot—Senate constitutional amendment; would authorize excess condemnation—Vote "yes."

No. 23 on ballot—Assembly constitutional amendment No. 19; amends section 13 of article 20, to permit preferential voting—Vote "yes."

No. 29 on ballot—Assembly constitutional amendment No. 81; designed to enlarge municipal powers, but is dangerously worded—Vote "no."

No. 25 on ballot—Assembly constitutional amendment No. 25; designed to enlarge powers of freeholders, but is dangerously worded—Vote "no."

No. 31 on ballot—Assembly constitutional amendment No. 87; would authorize the railroad commission to fix the compensation to be paid for taking property of a public utility—Vote "yes."

No. 33 on ballot—Senate constitutional amendment No. 53; would give one city owning a public utility the right to sell service in another city without first obtaining a franchise—Vote "no."

No. 42 on ballot—Senate constitutional amendment No. 13; designed to make bonds payable anywhere, but is defectively worded—Vote "no."

"PERFECTION FIRST"

In a large office where many people are working, the words "Perfection First," printed in large letters, are found on the walls in numerous places; in every telephone booth, on the pillars, in whatever part of the room one goes, he is sure to meet the words, "Perfection First."

Consequences of mistakes, however small in themselves, are so far-reaching that the financial loss is often great. Just an error in one figure may require the time of many different persons to rectify. The time of every person in an establishment is worth just so much in dollars and cents, and, according to the time required to correct the mistakes, are they an expense. Serious results sometimes come from the smallest mistakes, but if it is nothing more than the time required for the correction, it is more than the earnest worker can afford to cause.

Most of the mistakes made in the routine of business come either from carelessness or from hurry, but if one works for "Perfection First" these may both be overcome. When many details are demanding attention, it is not always easy to work without confusion, but if it is remembered that perfect work should come first and no rush or hurry is permitted to interfere with it, and that no one is called upon to do more than can be done right, many of the mistakes found in the business world would be obliterated.—Christian Science Monitor.

YELLOW LUNCHEON

Mrs. Edward L. Payne of 323 Central avenue was entertained at luncheon today, the hostess for the occasion being Mrs. Oliver O. Clark.

Yellow chrysanthemums decorated the house excepting in the dining-room where luncheon was served. Here wee pumpkins, witches and other Halloween suggestions were used, and in the center of the table a low crystal bowl of old fashioned marigolds stood.

Besides the hostess and guest of honor, covers were marked for Mesdames H. V. Henry, Arthur D. Clark, Frank England, Mrs. Clark's aunt, Mrs. Dowfield, and Miss Louise Ramsey.

RAILROAD COMMITTEE

There will be a very important meeting of the railroad committee this evening at 7:45 at the city hall. All members should make it a point to be present.

GOT HIM BOTH WAYS

Diner—You charge me more for this steak than you used to.
Restaurant Manager—I have to pay more for it. The price of meat has gone up.

Diner—And the steak is smaller than it used to be.

R. M.—That of course is on account of the scarcity of beef.—Boston Transcript.

ARREST CAMPER

The mountains back of Santa Ana have been watched so carefully this season that quite a number of campers have been called upon to pay fines for leaving their fires burning.

There are still a few vacant lots on which weeds reign supreme. In some cases it would pay anyone to cut them down and use them as fire wood.
